Oh! say can you see

If you can, well and good; if not, get your glasses and see as you should.People with perfect eyes see clearly and comfortably without pain, strain or discomfort.If your eyes trouble you it is a sure sign that something is wrong somewhere. Irritation and sore eyes are usually caused by eye strain.If the cause is eye strain it can be removed by properly fitted glasses.Wouldn't you be glad to change your red, swollen, itching eyelids for a pair of clear glasses? You'd see better, look better and feel better.

SOAPS AND SOAPSAll look pretty much alike, but a little chemical testing shows great differences. Some too alkaline, some too acid, some hardly soap at all.Now we can't make toilet soap conveniently, but we can buy the right kind and know it is right when we buy it.Almond Meal Toilet Soap has been tested in this hard water and gives satisfaction.We also carry a large line of leading brands of Toilet Soaps.

days, was reported better yesterday.GONE TO LOS ANGELES.—Mrs.
T. K. Elvey of the firm of Elvey and Hallett, has gone to Los Angeles, where she will be for some time on business and visiting with her many friends.CONVALESCENT.—Mrs. W. S.
Goldsworthy who has been quite seriously ill for some time, is now convalescing and her early restoration is expected.THE FUNERAL OF AN ELK.—R. A.
Clark, who died at Tempe on Saturday morning will be buried there at two o'clock this afternoon under the direction of the lodge of Elks of Phoenix.
Mr. Clark came to this part of the country from Colorado about a year ago.A VAGRANT.—The police early yesterday morning lodged in jail a crippled vagrant who had been making himself a general nuisance around the Hardwick hotel office. After his arrest he refused to go to jail unless the officers provided him with a back.They accommodated him in view of the fact that he was hardly a fit person to drag through the streets, but it is probable he only added that much to the sum total of his punishment when Recorder Thomas gets action.LOST $200.—The Phoenix baseball team lost $200 yesterday besides the game money. Owing to the rain the game could not be played at Estabate park and Manager Sullivan of the Independents figures himself just $100 lower, the amount of the purse. Manager Rindler of the All-Star team, makes a similar calculation. The managers desire it announced that the tickets sold or placed for yesterday will be good next Sunday, when another effort will be made to pull off the match.TREACHERY REWARDED.—There was filed in the office of the county recorder on Saturday a document with a history behind it. It was the appointment by County School Superintendent Fulton of Professor Lee as his assistant. Many people do not know how this thing has come about, for Superintendent Fulton is a democrat, while Professor Lee is a republican.
It has been learned, however, that the appointment is a reward for party treachery, a part payment of a penitence on political perfidy, for evidence has come to light that the new assistant all through the late campaign shamelessly threw down and knifed W.
H. Lee, the republican candidate for the office of superintendent.A HONEYMOON TRIP.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Constable are in the city on their honeymoon trip, the guests of the family of George N. Marshall of 219 E. Adams street. They expect to leave this evening via the southern route, for Los Angeles which will be their home. They were married about three weeks ago in St. Joseph Mo., and since then have made a tour of the larger eastern cities. Mr. Constable is one of the best known business men in the west. He has operated in Arizona, New Mexico and western Texas.

William M. Dameron who died Saturday night at the advanced age of 82 was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parlors of George F. Merryman, and was largely attended by relatives and friends.THE FINAL HONORS.—The final honors due a veteran of the civil war were bestowed upon the late J. C.
Atheiston yesterday afternoon, when the funeral was held in the parlors of Eastering & Whitney, under the auspices of the G. A. R. There was a good attendance also of the neighbors and friends of the dead man who knew him only to respect him.FUNERAL OF C. F. MORRELL.— The funeral of the late Charles F.
Morrell who died in Globe a few days ago, was held yesterday afternoon at the parlors of Eastering & Whitney.
It was attended by a large membership of the local Elks lodge to which he belonged and of which lodge he helped to organize a number of years ago.
The first news of his death was understandably accompanied by details. It was learned later that he died very suddenly, presumably from heart disease, as he had retired in his usual health and was found dead in bed the next day.
A book he had been reading lying by his side.Nell—Is Maud as devoted as ever to her cute little puppy? Belle—Oh, she has two, now. Nell—Two? Belle—Yes, she's married to young Mr. Saphedde.
